GOVERNMENT OF AJMER Education Department

NOTIFICATIONS

Ajmer, the 25th April 1954

No. 1/2/53-Edn—This Government notification No. 1/2/52-Edn, dated the 28th December 1953, regarding the Ajmer Primary Education Rules, 1953, published at pages 5 to 9 of the Gazette of India, Part III—Section 3, dated the 9th January 1954, is hereby cancelled.

By order
V. N. BHATIA
Deputy Secretary

Ajmer, the 26th April 1954

No. 1/2/53-Edn.(a)—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 14 of the Ajmer Primary Education Act, 1952 (II of 1952), the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer is pleased to make the following rules :—

1. Short title extent and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Ajmer Primary Education Rules, 1953.
- (2) They extend to the whole of the Ajmer State and shall come into force from the date of publication of this notification in the official gazette.
2. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context :—
 - (1) "Act" means the Ajmer Primary Education Act, 1952 (II of 1952).
 - (2) "Director" means the Director of Education of the State or any other officer authorised by the Government to perform the duties of the Director.
 - (3) "Area of compulsion" means all sub-divisions or any part of a Sub-division in which primary education has been made compulsory under section 3(1).
 - (4) "Attendance Officer" means an officer appointed by the Director for the purpose of ensuring regular attendance at a recognised primary school of children to whom the Act applies.
 - (5) "Child" means a person of either sex of such age, not less than six or more than 11 years, as may be prescribed under section 2(1)(h).
 - (6) "Warning" means a notice served on a guardian to cause a child who is under his guardianship, to attend school.
 - (7) "Form" means form appended to these rules.
 - (8) "Section" means a section of the Act.
 - (9) "Schedule" means a schedule appended to these rules.
 - (10) Words and expressions used in the Act but not defined in rules shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Act.

3. Organisation of census of children.—Before introducing compulsion, and every year after the introduction of compulsion, the Director shall cause a census to be taken of all children in the area in which compulsion is proposed to be or has been introduced. For this purpose, the Director shall in accordance with such directions as may be given by the Chief Commissioner arrange :

- (i) to fix and notify the dates on which such census is proposed to be taken;
- (ii) to appoint the necessary enumerators and supervising enumerators, to assign specific villages or areas to each of them and to explain to them work which they are expected to do;
- (iii) to get, as accurately, as possible, particulars of each child filled in the census form given in Form A prescribed in Appendix I to these rules; and
- (iv) to get the census work supervised and checked by the attendance officers.

4. Entry of name and date of a child.—(1) The name and date of birth of a child given in the census form over his signature or thumb impression by the parent shall be taken as correct and entered in the census register and the general register of the school; provided that if at the time of admission to the school or in response to the warning issued to him under rule 10 the parent of the child disputes the correctness of such date and furnishes under his signature or thumb impression a different birth date and produces proof in support of his statement, the head teacher of the school shall refer the matter to the Director, or such officer as may be nominated by him, who shall decide which of the two dates shall be entered in the census and general registers and such date shall then be entered in such registers.

(2) The name and date of birth entered in the registers under sub-rule (1) shall not be altered except with the sanction of the Director, or such officer as may be nominated by him.

5. Preparation and publication of a Census Register.—(1) Immediately after the census work is completed, such officer as may be nominated by the Director shall, in accordance with such directions as may be given by the Director, arrange with the help of the enumerators, supervising enumerator and attendance officers to get prepared for each village or ward of a town or city—

- (a) A census register of all children of the ages to whom the compulsion applies, already attending approved schools in Form B prescribed in Appendix I to these rules, and
- (b) a list of all children of the school—ages not attending any approved school in Form C prescribed in Appendix I to these rules.

(2) The registers and lists prepared under sub-rules (1) shall then be published.

Explanation.—The registers and lists shall be deemed to have been published in the area where compulsion is proposed to be introduced or has been introduced, if the registers and lists are kept open for inspection during working hours at any office or school in such area and an announcement is made by beat of drum that the register and lists are kept open for inspection at such places during such hours.

6. Census of children to be taken every year in an area of compulsion.—In any area in which compulsory primary education upto any standard has been introduced, a census of all children shall be held every year in accordance with rule 3. At a subsequent census (i) the particulars of each child already filled in the census form at the preceding census shall be verified and if any modification excepting the change in the name or the date of birth of the child is found to be necessary such modification may be made in the old census form and duly initialled by the enumerator or a new census form got filled and signed by the parent or guardian of such child and (ii) particulars of all children who are likely to be within the ages to which the compulsion will apply at the commencement of next academic year and who were not enumerated at any previous census shall be filled in the prescribed form.

7. Revision of the Census Register from time to time.—It shall be the duty of the Attendance Officer to keep in his charge as a permanent record the census register prepared under rule 5 for every village or ward of a town corrected up-to-date by (i) adding from time to time the names of all children from the lists of non-attending children as soon as such children have been enrolled in approved schools and of other children of the ages to which the compulsion applies who were for any reason not enumerated at the time of the census or who came to reside in the compulsory area after the census and have been enrolled in approved schools now and (ii) removing from it, from time to time the names of children who have been reported by Headmaster to have left approved schools or been removed to areas outside the compulsory area or who have ceased to be under compulsion for any valid reason such as (a) death (b) completing the compulsory course, (c) completing the school year.

after completing the maximum age to which the compulsion applies or (d) being exempted under section 4 of the Act. The Census Register shall also be revised on the basis of the census taken in the area of compulsion.

8. The School Advisory Committees.—A Committee consisting of five members, one official and four non-officials, shall be appointed by the Chief Commissioner for a group of primary schools covering an area of 3 to 5 square miles in the compulsory area. The official member shall be the Convenor of the Committee and three members shall form a quorum. The names of the schools that may come under the jurisdiction of each Committee shall be determined by the Director.

(2) Every Committee so appointed shall function for a period of three years and shall thereafter be reconstituted by the Director with the approval of the Chief Commissioner. The members selected shall be persons of experience and shall be acquainted with the educational conditions prevailing in the area for which the Committee is constituted. Appointment to any vacancy occurring in the membership of the Committee shall be made by the Director.

(3) The Chief Commissioner shall have power to abolish any Committee which in his opinion, does not function properly.

(4) The School Advisory Committee shall—

- (a) assist the officers of the Education Department in securing suitable accommodation for the School;
- (b) assist the Headmaster and other officers of the Education Department in keeping the school premises in good repair and in a sanitary condition;
- (c) visit all the schools placed under its supervision at least once a month;
- (d) note whether the number of pupils in the School at the time of the visit corresponds with the number marked as present in the register and report any irregularity to the Director;
- (e) report to the Director any irregularity or unpunctuality in the matter of the opening and closing of the school and the teacher's attendance;
- (f) endeavour to increase the number of pupils, especially of those belonging to the Intermediate communities, Schedule Castes, Aboriginal and Hill Tribes and other Backward communities and to improve the attendance.

9. Period of attendance at School.—The period of attendance at school required under Section 6(2) of the Act, shall be not less than 75 per cent. of the working days in the year beginning with the 1st of July, each year, and not less than three hours on each day of attendance, provided that the Director may fix other periods of attendance in special cases.

10. Issue of warning to cause attendance of children.—(1) The Headmaster of the recognised school concerned shall issue a warning in Form D given in Appendix I to these rules to the parent or guardian of every child of the school-age to whom compulsion applies not attending any approved school directing him to cause the child to attend the school within a week from the date of this warning or from a date which shall be specified in the warning.

(2) If a Headmaster comes across the case of a child liable to attend school compulsorily having been employed by a person as to interfere with the education or instruction of such child, he shall issue a warning in Form E in Appendix II to these rules to such a person against the employment of the child. If the warning has no effect, a complaint shall be lodged by the Attendance Officer concerned against the person concerned in a Court of Law in Form H to Appendix I to these rules.

(3) The warnings under sub-rule (1) and (2) may be served by their delivery to the persons concerned personally or by affixing them on the premises last occupied by the persons concerned.

11. Particulars of warnings issued to be maintained and communicated.—The Headmaster of each approved school in the area of compulsion shall maintain a register showing full particulars of all warnings issued by him in Form F & G in Appendix I to these rules. These particulars shall also be communicated to the Attendance Officer concerned in the same form.

12. Application for exemption from attendance.—If a parent or guardian wishes that his child or ward be exempted from attending a school for any of the reasons mentioned in Section 7 of the Act, he shall apply for such exemption to the Attendance Officer concerned through the Headmaster of the School which the child is required to attend. The Attendance Officer shall then obtain orders from the Competent Authority, mentioned in rule 13 of these rules.

The grounds of such exemption are :—

- (1) The child is a Muslim girl over the age of ten years.
- (2) That the child, if a boy over ten years of age and, if a girl, is over nine years of age at the time of his or her first admission to a primary school, and is, in the opinion of the Competent Authority mentioned in Rule 13, not likely to complete his or her primary education.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner has by notification exempted any person or class of persons from operation of the Act under Section 4 of the Act.
- (4) Any other ground which in the opinion of the Competent Authority referred to in Rule 13, is a fit ground for granting permanent exemption.

13. Grant of exemption from attendance or leave of absence.—If the exemption applied for under rule 12 is of a permanent nature, the Attendance Officer shall call the parent or guardian applying for exemption before the school Advisory Committee constituted under rule 8, and hear what he has to say and then in consultation with the Committee forward the application to the Chief Commissioner or such other officer as has been delegated the powers of Section 4 to grant exemption through his immediate officers concerned, with his recommendation or remarks whether the exemption be granted or not.

(2) If the exemption applied for is of a temporary nature the Headmaster of the School may grant such exemption and also leave or absence for a period not exceeding 7 days at a time.

- (a) when the child is ill; or
- (b) when any other member of his family is ill or disabled and the attendance of the child is required at home or
- (c) when there is the marriage of any of the relations of the child; or
- (d) when his absence is specially required by the parent or guardian to help him in his vacation; or
- (e) when any religious ceremony is to be performed at which in the opinion of the authority granting leave, the attendance of the child is necessary; or
- (f) when any death in the family of the child has occurred; or
- (g) when it is necessary for the child to accompany the guardian on temporary absence from his residence.

(3) If the period of exemption from attendance or leave of absence exceeds 7 days, the Headmaster shall forward the application to the Attendance Officer who may grant such exemption or leave of absence for a period not exceeding 15 days in all at a time for any of the reasons given in sub-rule (2).

(4) If the period of exemption from attendance or leave of absence exceeds 15 days at any time, the Attendance Officer shall forward the application with his remarks thereon to the Director or such officer as has been appointed by him in this behalf who may grant such exemption from attendance or leave of absence for the reasons given in sub-rule (2).

14. Report of absence.—(1) If any child liable to attend a school does not attend school directed in the warning issued under rule 10; and if such a child has not been exempted from attendance or granted leave of absence under rule 13, the Headmaster shall at once send a report of the fact to the Attendance officer.

(2) The Headmaster shall, not later than the 5th day of every month report simultaneously to the Attendance Officer and the Director :—

- (a) the names of all children who have not attended his school without any leave or absence granted to them and stating against their names the causes of their absence from school as ascertained by him after contacting parents or guardians of such children; and
- (b) the names of children of the ages to which compulsion applies, who have joined and left his school during the preceding month.

15. Report about the removal of a child or his parent or guardian to another place.—If the parent or guardian of a child liable for compulsion who is attending in approved school removes the child from the town or village or ward of a city in which he or it is residing the Headmaster of the school which the child attends shall inform the Attendance Officer and also the Director or the Officer authorised by him, of the removal of the child. If the removal is to another area of compulsion, the Director or the officer authorised by him shall take steps through the Attendance Officer of such area to ensure that the prescribe warning is served on the parent or guardian requiring him to cause the child to attend an approved school within that area. It shall be the duty of the Attendance Officer to check or cause to be checked at least 5 per cent. of the removals from the area of compulsion during each year in respect of each school.

16. Filing of complaints.—If the person to whom a warning has been issued fails to cause the child to attend an approved school on or after the date specified in the warning, the Attendance Officer shall on receipt of a report about the absence of such a child from the Headmaster of the school, if so authorised by the Chief Commissioner or such other officer as has been nominated by him, file a complaint to that effect in Form H given in Appendix I to these rules with a Magistrate, or the person empowered in this behalf by the District Magistrate.

17. Duties of Attendance Officer.—Subject to the instructions that may be issued by the Director, the Attendance Officer, so far as his beat is concerned, shall be responsible for—

- (a) the organisation and supervision of the census work and collection of statistics for the preparation of a scheme of compulsion;
- (b) the maintenance of a correct and up-to-date census register;
- (c) the issue of attendance notices;
- (d) the enrolment of all children liable for compulsion in schools within 2 months of the commencement of the school year;
- (e) arranging for the receipt of report about enrolment and attendance from Headmasters of all primary schools and submission of monthly reports on attendance to the Director;
- (f) visiting schools and homes of pupils who are not enrolled or are irregular in attendance or are absent from schools;
- (g) ensuring that warnings are issued by the Headmasters in respect of children to whom compulsion applies but do not attend recognised school;
- (h) the enforcement of compulsory attendance by preparing cases for prosecution and if authorised in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner by lodging complaints before a Magistrate or other person empowered in this behalf by the District Magistrate; and
- (i) such other work including inspection and supervision work as may be assigned to him by the Director from time to time.

18. Duties of Headmasters.—In addition to his duties as a primary school teacher in respect of the class or classes taught by him personally a Headmaster of a primary school in the area of compulsion subject to such instructions as may from time to time be issued by the Director and other officers authorised in this behalf, shall—

- (a) be generally responsible for the efficient and effective education including physical education of all pupils in his school;
